Public Sector Duty (PSED) Compliance webpage

The specific duties of the PSED require schools to publish information demonstrating how they are complying with the Public Sector Equality Duty.

Epworth Education as a Trust complies with the Public Sector Duty in the following way:

- PSED Compliance

In addition to the Trust, the information below demonstrates the additional ways that Leyland Methodist Schools implement the duties of the PSED:

1. Eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation and other conduct prohibited by the Act.

2. Advance equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not.

3. Foster good relations between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not.

In accordance with the PSED, we have also must also publish information pupil-related data who share a relevant protected characteristic who may be affected by our policies and practises.

Leyland Methodist Schools Context

Leyland Methodist Schools are closely federated schools on a shared site with a shared leadership within Epworth Education Trust. Leyland Infant School has a PAN of 70 and has 198 children on roll. The junior school also has a PAN of 70 and has 270 children on roll. Both schools are currently judged “good” by SIAMS. The junior school is also judged “good” by Ofsted and the infant school “outstanding.”

The buildings are all on ground level. There is more than one accessible toilet on both of the premises. The building is well maintained and all areas and classrooms have disabled access.
